

Hafren Cycling Club – Rules of Membership

By joining Hafren Cycling Club you are agreeing to abide by the rules of Hafren Cycling Club and through them the governing bodies to which the club is affiliated. Serious or repeated failure to abide by these rules may result in your membership being terminated.

Club Rules

Membership

Membership is due Annually

Membership runs from January to December

Membership subscriptions are due on the 1st of January each year unless you join after the 1st October and then you will be given free membership for the following year (unless moving from Junior to Senior on 1st January following)

Once membership expires, you will be notified by email, and must renew with 28 days otherwise you will be deemed no longer a club member and your details will be removed from the club database

Riders, who are already a member of another club BC or CTT affiliated club can apply for 'Second Claim Membership'

Only paid up members may stand for office and vote at the AGM

Members who have not paid membership fees are not allowed to enter Time Trials, Cyclo Cross, Road Races or other events run under the auspices of British Cycling or Cycling Time Trials using the club name (including the wearing of club kit)

Club Rides

When on club rides;

The wearing of helmets is mandatory on all club rides

Members must adhere to the highway code at all times

Members must be courteous to other road users at all time

Dangerous or erratic riding will result in the offender being asked to leave the ride(s), and may lead to their membership of the club being terminated at the discretion of the committee

Members agree to adhere to the Hafren CC Code of Conduct
